

Wellspent Spritz

Serves 1 | 2 minutes

Our house variation of a classic found throughout northern Spain, this simple spritz can be made with either sweet or blanc vermouth (blanc vermouth, less well known in the US, is citrus-driven and less sweet than sweet vermouth, but considerably sweeter than dry vermouth). We top ours with a simple lemon twist, but in Barcelona, the customary garnish is a slice of orange and green olives.

Atxa Blanco

Soda water

Lemon peel

Step 1 In a small glass, add equal parts chilled vermouth and soda water.

Step 2 Express the oils from a lemon twist over the top of the glass and enjoy.
